Motorcycle Road Guard Certificate

Possible New Rules Governing Motorcycle Road Guard Certificate

Minnesota Rules, possible new chapter

Summary: The Minnesota Department of Public Safety (DPS) is considering amending Minnesota Rules by adding a new chapter in order to implement the provisions of the motorcycle road guard certificate law that was enacted in Laws 2012, chapter 287. (See article 3, sec. 27, 43). The rules are needed to establish safety and equipment requirements, curriculum content, and the fee for a person to obtain a motorcycle road guard certificate.

Status of rulemaking: A Request For Comments has been issued, and public comments are being accepted. DPS has appointed an advisory committee under Minnesota Statutes, section 14.101.
