

Planning and Designing Roads for Older Driver Safety March 31, 2004

FHWA
Course

Description: This workshop was developed in conjunction with the "Older Driver Highway Design Handbook." The goals of this workshop are 1) to illustrate why the Handbook is needed by outlining and depicting the changes that occur with aging and how they impact highway design; 2) to highlight the relationship between the Handbook and existing design manuals; and 3) to demonstrate application of the guidelines in the Handbook.

Instructor: FHWA Staff

Audience: This workshop targets design, safety, and traffic engineering personnel who are responsible for day-to-day road design.
